Special stitches

- asc - attaching singel crochet

Begin as a regular single crochet (two loops on you hook). Put the hook through the stated stitch, yarn over and pull through all four loops (the two green ones from the leaf and the blue ones from the balloon).

- pc1 - picot1

Chain 2, and make a single crochet through the first chain stitch you made.

- pc2 - picot2

Chain 3, and make a single crochet through the first chain stitch you made.

- pop - popcorn

Make 4 double crochet in the specified stitch, drop the loop and then insert the hook in the first double crochet you made. With the hook still placed through the first double crochet: grab the dropped loop and pull it through. Secure with a chain stitch.

- s. pop - start popcorn

It's just the same as a regular popcorn but you begin with a standing dc, or 2 chain stitches, then crochet 3 double crochets in the same stitch. Finish as a regular popcorn.

Other information

- The finished mini bloom balloon measures approximately 6 cm wide and 15 cm tall.
- Crochet the front post stitches a bit looser to have more "give" to them.
- If nothing else is stated; each round ends with a slip stitch in the first stitch. The following round begins with a chain stitch to get the proper height and does not count as a stitch in the pattern.
- Please keep counting your stitches throughout the pattern. It's really important for the overlays to end up correctly.

The balloon - 834

R3. Work this round entirely in the chain stitches from round 2.

If you're not use to work those standing stitches you can do chains instead: attach the yarn with a slip stitch in the chain stitch from round 2, then work 2 chain stitches.

{sdc, dc}, *inc*. (14 dc)

Now, place a stitch marker around the last two double crochets you just did. It's really important that you start round 14 in these and in no other pair.

When finished this round you'll notice that you work is bending a lot (!) and that's perfectly fine. It's meant to do so, don't worry about it.

R4. *sc, inc*. (21 sc)

R5. *2 sc, inc*. (28 sc)

R6. inc, *3 sc, inc*, 3 sc (35 sc)

R7. *4 sc, inc*. (42 sc)

R8. 3 sc, *inc, 5 sc*, inc, 2 sc. (49 sc)

Don't cut the thread, just secure it with a stitch marker and leave it be for the time.

The flower petals - 346

The first layer.

Join with a ss in a pop from round 2.

R9. *ch 2, ss in the next pop*. (7 ch sp, 7 ss)

R10. Work only in the ch sp:s from round 9: skip all the ss.

*{ss, hdc, dc, hdc, ss}*. (14 ss, 14 hdc, 7 dc)

You'll now have made seven petals, the next round is worked in these.

R11. Skip all the ss:s from round 10. *ss in the hdc, {2 sc, pc1, sc} in the dc, ss in the hdc*. (14 ss, 21 sc, 7 pc1)

Please do not claim this pattern as your own. If you wish to share this pattern, you may link to it but please do not reprint it on your site.

The second layer.

R12. Work behind the first petal layer and begin with a ch followed by a ss in the ss from round 10 (see pic).

*ch 3, ss*. (7 ch sp, 7 ss)

The needles shows where to place the ss:s.

R13. Work entirely in the ch sp:s from round 12.

*{ss, hdc, dc, tr, dc, hdc, ss}*. (14 ss, 14 hdc, 14 dc, 7 tr)

Cut the thread and fast off (ONLY 346!).

Flower leaf - 823

It's time to make those three flower leafs. Join with a ss through the last (!) two dc:s from round 3 on the balloon (se pic). You'll now be pretty happy that you placed a stitch marker around these because it can be quite hard to tell otherwise.

R14. *ch 3, ss* 5 times, ch 4, skip a petal, ss in the next two dc:s. (6 ch sp, 6 ss)

Please do not claim this pattern as your own. If you wish to share this pattern, you may link to it but please do not reprint it on your site.

R15. Please note that each leaf is worked over two ch sp:s!

*{ss to the next ch sp, sc, hdc, dc, dc, tr, tr, pc2}, {tr, tr, dc, dc, hdc, sc, ss}*.

(6 ss, 6 sc, 6 hdc, 12 dc, 12 tr, 3 pc2)

Cut the thread and fast off (ONLY 823!). Let's continue with the balloon again.

The balloon - 834

R16. It's now time to fasten the leaf to the balloon so grab the loop from before. It's happening a lot this round so I've listed the steps to clarify. Please be careful not to skip any stitches, the hidden ones behind the fp.tr:s are easy to miss.

Fp.tr:s are worked around the ss from round 14, (between the leafs). The needle shows where they are to be placed.

R24. Now comes the tricky part: you will make three legs that will begin from the fp tr coming down from the leaf. And around the other fp tr:s that are coming down between the leafs you will make two fp tr together. Crystal clear? Hihi. You can do it! Let's go.

R27. Now you'll make the bottom part of the pattern by crocheting around those fp stitches from round 24. See pics below!

Now its time to stuff, but don't cut the thread. You'll use it to attach the bottom piece to it.

Assembly

1. The balloon and bottom piece

Place the bottom piece against the opening of the balloon and join together with slip stitches. (21 ss)

Finish off with an invisible join and put the needle through the balloon several times to secure. Shape the balloon with your hands.

2. The balloon, the basket and the ropes

Make a ss in the hdc (basket, round 7) that is placed right above the ch from round 4.

Chain 15 and attach the rope to the balloon around the fp dc (balloon, round 36).

Cut the thread but keep a bit of length. Attach it by putting the needle through the balloon several times.

Repeat these steps for the other two ropes.

2. Hanging

This is for sure the easiest step in the pattern. Tie a fishing line in the middle of the flowers center, make a loop at the other end and then voila! It's done.

Well done!

A final little thing before you put this pattern away: please let me know if you find any faults or things to be unclear. And I would absolutely love to see your progress and finished balloons so please tag me in your pics in social media.
